Dr. F. L. Utter, dentist, suite 415-416-417 Masonic building.

Joseph Wellman and wife motored to Yamhill yesterday.

Former Supreme Judge Will R. King has left for Portland after visiting in Salem for some time.

Mrs. Smithson, of South Commercial street, is visiting the week-end with friends in Portland.

Max Ball, of Portland, will attend Willamette University this year, he having arrived in the city yesterday.

Paul H. Spillman and Ethel May Mineh, of Salem, and E. G. Beier, of Clear Lake, and Annie M. Neubach, of Salem, were granted marriage licenses yesterday afternoon by County Clerk Gehlar.

Frank Smith, a Stayton man, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Cooper on a warrant charging him with larceny of $98, which he is alleged to have stolen from a man by the name of A. Johnson. Smith was arrested by the police last night on the charge of drunkenness and Johnson, learning of the arrest, immediately advised the constable. According to the story told to Constable Cooper, Smith knocked Johnson down with a club and robbed him of $98 in cash. When brought before Justice Webster yesterday, Smith pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for 10 o'clock next Saturday morning.

Little Rodney Martin, of South Salem, was frightened yesterday afternoon when a big black auto humped into him and knocked the small chap to the pavement at the intersection of State and Commercial streets. The lad was in the act of crossing the street from the United States National bank corner, and failed to notice the auto approaching. When but a few feet from the curb, the machine, which had been slowed down to a creeping pace, struck the boy and hurled him to the pavement. Luckily the auto stopped still when it hit the lad and the only damage done was the shattering of an empty go-cart he was wheeling. Rodney was greatly frightened, but the auto driver kindly escorted him to the nearest factory, where his cart was repaired, and he was sent on his way homeward happy, and with a friendly feeling toward the auto man who ran into him.

Dr. Mendelsohn fits eyes correctly, 211 U. S. Bank building.

The new director of the physical culture department of the Y. M. C. A. arrived yesterday with his family from Salt Lake City.

The remains of Frank E. Barnes were buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock in City View cemetery. The funeral was held from the home of the deceased, and R. W. Tatum officiated.

Among the distinct hits scored at the Pendleton Round Up was that of the Salem Cherrians, of whom the East Oregonian said, besides a lot of other nice things: "The natty white suits with the cherries embroidered on the sleeves of the coat have been much admired and advertise the capital city in a most effective way. Everyone meets the Cherrians with a huge smile and a glad hand."

The oldest county clerk in the United States attended the convention held by the different county officials in Portland this week. He was G. N. Jones, of McMinnville. Clerk Jones is 70 years old, and is conceded to be not only the oldest county clerk in Oregon, but the oldest in the whole United States. Secretary of State Olcott paid Mr. Jones a high compliment when he addressed the members of the convention by saying that the oldest county clerk was the finest writer and neatest reporter of records in the state.

An over-enthusiastic motorcycle rider came to grief yesterday afternoon at the intersection of Front and Chemeketa streets, when he attempted to tear a hind wheel off a heavy wood wagon belonging to H. G. Walker, of Polk county. According to Mr. Walker, he was driving west on Chemeketa street near Front, when a motorcycle attempted to scoot by. He says the cyclist shot around a rig following his wagon and tried to cut an out-curve between the two vehicles, when the gas bicycle collided with the hind wheel of the wagon. The rider, who refused to give his name, pitched head-long to the parking along the street, while his machine cut several kinds of circles across the pavement before the spark plug refused to spark any longer. The machine was damaged considerably on the fore deck, but the rider escaped practically uninjured.

Mexican Rebels Discuss Wilson's Policy; Sentries Guard Big Bridge

Photographs by American Press Association.

WHAT next in Mexico? That was the question of the hour after President Wilson had announced his policy of neutrality to congress. In the land of revolution they didn't like the stand of the United States at all. The Constitutionalists, as the rebels under General Venustiano Carranza are called, took particular offense at the embargo placed on the importation of arms and ammunition to Mexico. The upper picture shows some of them being harangued by Carranza. Threats against Americans are said to have been made. A picture of the international bridge near El Paso is also shown, with the monument marking the boundary line between the United States and Mexico, and American and Mexican sentries.

Dr. May, nerve specialist Masonic bld.

District Attorney D. H. Upjohn, in a report to the secretary of state, complains that the legislature inflicted an unnecessary hardship on Polk county by fixing the jury term for August and on Yamhill county by fixing it for September, both months being busy ones.

Jack Milson was married to Miss Athaline Prime yesterday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. Robert S. Gill officiating. The party that saw the bride and groom off on the Oregon Electric was well supplied with rice, and Mr. and Mrs. Milson received a liberal share of the wedding celebrating material.

R. L. Ellwood, an aged Turner farmer, was arrested yesterday by Constable Cooper on the charge of killing China pheasants out of season. When Mr. Smith was brought before Justice Webster, he informed the court that when he fired his gun at the pheasant day before yesterday it was the first time he had had a gun in his hands in the past 20 years. He told Judge Webster that he had taken the gun out of a woodshed near his place to kill a chicken hawk, and while returning to his residence, near Turner, he caught sight of a pheasant cavorting near the premises and shot it. Judge Webster fined the farmer $25.

THROW AWAY YOUR EYEGLASSES

A FREE PRESCRIPTION.

You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eyestrain or other eye-weakness? If so, you will be glad to know that there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days, everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Optona, fill a two ounce bottle with warm water, drop in one Optona tablet, and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you even a little take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

CHERRIANS, TAKE NOTICE.

The king commands that you meet with him at the Commercial club rooms at 8 o'clock, sharp, on Friday, September 19. Important business.

A proposition of settlement of the case of Robert E. France vs. Mary R. France, a divorce proceedings, was filed in the circuit court this morning by the plaintiff. The articles set forth that plaintiff is willing to give defendant $3000 and all her personal belongings and that the plaintiff is willing to care for the minor children at the issue of the marriage.

An elaborate reception was tendered Tuesday evening to the members of St. Paul's parish and friends and Rev. and Mrs. Robert S. Gill, the new pastor of the parish. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thielson was the scene of the reception, and 75 members of the parish and their friends attended. The occasion was in honor of Rev. Gill and wife, who have just arrived from the east. The decorations were by the following ladies: Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. A. Strong, Mrs. Elizabeth Case, Mrs. Geo. H. Bingham, Mrs. Seba Case Wall and Mrs. Henry Pape.

A reply to an answer filed to a complaint in the case of W. A. Wiest against School District 24 was recorded in the circuit court today. The plaintiff, in his reply, among denials of other allegations in the answer, sets forth as grounds for a separate reply that Blanche Ford-Pickering and Wm. Trindle advised Laura DeBord to attach her signature to a false affidavit prepared by the defendants. Wiest has brought suit to recover $575 alleged to be due on a contract entered into between himself and the school board of district 24.

LETTERS OF HUSBAND DO NOT SHOW MUCH LOVE

The divorce suit of Mabel Caisee vs. H. L. Caisee was partially heard in Circuit Judge Galloway's court yesterday afternoon, and upon stipulation by Attorneys McNary and Shields for the plaintiff, and Attorney Shaw of Portland, for the defendant, the case was continued until next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Caisee is seeking a divorce on the grounds of desertion. The complaint was filed in the circuit court here a year ago and in spite of the fact continuances have been granted the defendant from time to time since then, Attorney Shaw asked the court to grant another motion for continuance yesterday, which the court refused to do. According to the argument of Attorney Shaw, the defendant in the case loves and cherishes the plaintiff and does not want to be separated from her. In letters written by the defendant, and which the plaintiff turned over to her attorneys, are contrary to the defendant's counsel's statements, however. Reading the letters in court, Attorney McNary set forth that the husband wanted a divorce and desired especially that the plaintiff keep the matter as quiet as possible. A portion of the testimony was heard by Judge Galloway yesterday and he then continued the case until Wednesday of next week.

KILLS WIFE AND MAN WHO GOT HIS PLACE

Schrader Also Shoots Himself in Neck and Wounds Police Officer in Bloody Battle.

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]

Everett, Wash., Sept. 18.—Search for Wallace R. Schrader, who last night shot and killed his wife and Reginald Davis and wounded Police Patrolman Thad Tift, ended at daybreak when Schrader was found in an outhouse with blood flowing from self-inflicted neck wounds. He was taken to a hospital, where Tift had preceded him. Neither is in a dangerous condition.

The double killing is the most tragic occurrence in Everett in several years, and followed domestic troubles. Schrader was released from jail last Sunday, where he had spent a month for mistreating his wife, Ruby Schrader.

Officers say Schrader was insanely jealous of the wife and his own brother, Frank Schrader, Davis succeeded Schrader as nightwatchman at the Jamison shingle mill.

About 10 o'clock Schrader went to the mill and was seen talking with Davis. Developments showed he stole a revolver owned by Davis and shot him through the neck from the back. The body of Davis fell across a fire-hole and was badly burned when discovered. Later discovery of the bullet hole in his neck was made.

Shoots His Wife.

An hour later Schrader entered his home. Neighbors heard him threaten to kill his wife and saw him point a revolver at her. Patrolmen Tift and Queen answered a telephone call. As they stepped into the house Schrader shot his wife through the neck, killing her instantly. Then he wheeled and fired through the glass door at the officers. The bullet fractured Tift's collar bone and splinters of glass entered Queen's eyes, whose three shots at Schrader as he ran through the house went wild.

Schrader has six children, the eldest 12 years of age. His wife was 30 years of age. Davis is survived by a family of his wife and four children.

DEATH NOTICES.

CAPTAIN JULIUS HOWD.

After living for 83 years, during which time he fought Indians and braved the wilderness of the west, Captain Julius Howd, one of Oregon's foremost pioneers, passed away at his home on East State street yesterday. In the death of Captain Howd, Salem loses not only an old pioneer, but a useful and valued citizen.

The funeral will be held from the home on State street tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Robert L. Morton to officiate. The remains will be buried in Twin Oaks cemetery, at Turner.

MILES.

At the Salem hospital, Thursday, September 18, 1913, Bruce Miles, the 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles, who reside at 993 Court street.

The parents of the deceased are well known in this city, and a wide circle of friends will extend to them their sincere sympathy in the time of their bereavement. The funeral will be held
